Senior Responsibilities

-Cap and Gown orders due October 19th either online, to Mr. Yurik, or in person to Mr. Armstrong who will be here from 11:20-12:20 on Monday the 19th

--Remote Learners need to either have a parent pick their packet up, or they will need to come to school to get their packets themselves.....they have been sent messages through Remind, emailed, and now called about this. These are still due October 19th for Remote Learners

-If a senior is reusing a cap and gown of a sibling, they are still responsible for purchasing a tassel, if they have any questions about that please direct them to myself or Mrs. Hamsher and we can walk them through that process

-Career Center Students will be receiving their cap and gown order forms at a different date directly from the career center (Date is still TBA but will be set up between Mr. Armstrong and the career center)

-Graduation is a formal affair, guys are expected to wear a shirt and tie, girls are expected to dress up as well, but should make sure their outfit is white as their cap and gowns will be white

-FAFSA and College Apps should be being completed ASAP

-All dates are subject to change based on the COVID guidelines and restrictions that may exist at the time.
